

Always Reasons

Eyefear

Somewhere out there years have passed
Now turned into dust and never to return
Somewhere buried deep within
Caught up in a circle of pain
It seems you're on your own
And your sanity hangs by a thread

Always reasons
Behind every tear
Behind every smile
Always reasons
For what makes us wait
And gives us a sign

Energy is all around
The barriers have been broken
By the hands of fate
What chapter lies ahead?
We are but one in the end
It seems only the bad ones remain
When will time be ending
Why can't we see into the future
And only into the past
