

Searching For Forgiveness

Eyefear

I will return
Surrender all your fears
I took myself to a church last night
Peace surrounds the dead
Whoever knew?
Passing through
Shadows of the past

Fading away
And there's no one here
Somewhere in time
My place I will find

Enter the dark and see what you'll find
Listen and you'll hear the demons inside
Step into the past before
You run out of time
What are we supposed to believe?
When the sky is falling
No where to hide just holding on
I'm holding on

Fading away
And there's no one here
Somewhere in time
My place I will find

I will not wonder anymore
As long as we remember
The reasons why we are here
