

Flags and Cities Bound

Eyehategod

In this place of probation
Reading the label of a lead-based paint remover
Is considered highbrow literature
The most ?heartless stages?
We know the ticket punchers are still idiotic
Spontaneous engine
A remission in treatment
Quarantined in my present condition
Institutionalized in this current situation

Isolated with unfortunate direction
Disguised gratitude
Disposed of ?neatly?
?a brittle? abduction
Impure and sacred
Detonated from billboard magazines and covers
An emanation with a closed mouth
The signal of abandoned dignity
