

Man Like Her

Eyelar

Oh, I got so tired of lovin' men
So I fucked a girl just to pretend
And she really wanted me again, yeah
I can't bring myself to tell her she's just a friend

And it always goes
The same way

Oh, I keep on givin' love to men who never give it back
I keep tearin' myself open, givin' everything I have
But she's the only one who's ever loved me in return
So I'll keep on lookin' for a man like her

Oh, I don't feel much when I'm in her bed
'Cause I save my love for men who don't give it back
Then I give her all the pieces left of me
Then I get up and go back to what I do best

And it always goes
The same way

Oh, I keep on givin' love to men who never give it back
I keep tearin' myself open, givin' everything I have
But she's the only one who's ever loved me in return
So I'll keep on lookin' for a man like her
