

Say It With Your Eyes

Eyelar

Cause I can't tell anymore if you're satisfied
Oh baby
So say it one more time
Say it one more time
Say it with your eyes

Cause I can't tell anymore
When you smile in the morn
Is it real? is it fake?
Are you tryna ignore it
Are you tired of the pain in the back of your brain
Say you tryna maintain I'm tryna do the same thing
But...

I think I'm past that, pass the smoke
I'm on the lap where do I go?
I'm finna
Cash out, headed back on the road
You got your, bags packed and a flight headed home

Talk to me don't talk nice
Up to you talk all night
But I ain't got the time, time started ticking when they started talking different, so you say I'm acting distant

Shattered dreams and shattered minds
Like it's broken glass and broken time
Cause you be reminiscing on time back it make you sad
I be reminiscing the times that we never had

Cause I can't tell anymore if you're satisfied
Oh baby
So say it one more time
Say it one more time
Say it with your eyes

Cause I can't tell anymore my mind started drifting away from the floor I swore this felt different
But hey
Who'd have thought the talk would turn viscous
Can't take it no more, I'm minding my business
Now my
Minds on the side of the highest thoughts took a ride just to fly now I'm flying off
She wanna talk, she wanna talk, she wanna talk
All this talk oh the talk got me lost

I'm lost in my zone, I'm lost all alone
Kick rocks on the road, can't box in my soul
They toxic get ghost, they watching my throne
Talk down for the moment but to my shows
Like

She saying lies, she saying lies
Ain't say a word but I seen the time
She saying lies, she saying lies
Ain't say word but I seen those eyes

Cause I can't tell anymore you're satisfied
Oh baby
So say it one more time
Say it one more time
Say it with your eyes
