

Break

Eyes Set to Kill

The days are passing by
The voices grow louder
I can't get through the night
Tossing and turning

Wake up, nothing feels the same
I'm not the person I was yesterday
I can't find my center
I've lost my temper again
Feels like I'm gonna, feels like I'm gonna break

I can't turn off my mind
The voices take over me
Try to contain them, they drive me insane
And I feel like I'm caving in
I'm caving in, I'm caving

Wake up, nothing feels the same
I'm not the person I was yesterday
I can't find my center
I've lost my temper again
Feels like I'm gonna, feels like I'm gonna break

Feels like I'm gonna break

Wake up, nothing feels the same
I'm not the person I was yesterday
I can't find my center
I've lost my temper again
Feels like I'm gonna, feels like I'm gonna break

I think I'm gonna break
I think I'm gonna break
