

Conclusion

Eyes Wide Open

Are you ready to meet your maker?
Is that your conclusion?
This is not revelations anymore
Revelations no more

There's no other side, no guiding light for you

As the world falls apart
You beg once again for another
Narcissistic salvation

We were looking for our future
As the preacher told us wrong
We had the answers all along
Now we're ready for our second failure
What's going on?
Just move along

Are you ready to leave gods acre?
Is that your solution?
I can't see your savior anywhere
Your savior nowhere

There's no other side, no guiding light for you

We were looking for our future
As the preacher told us wrong
We had the answers all along
Now we're ready for our second failure
What's going on?
Just move along

Just move along

We were looking for our future
We were looking for our future
What's going on?
Just move along
