

Wings of Redemption

Eyes Wide Open

No more hatred for mankind
No doubt left in my mind
Farewell indifference
Cause this is my deliverance

Deliverance

As it breaks me down, the answers are found
No more lies, just take it all away
A voice of life unbound, can you hear that sound?
Let's fly away

On the wings of redemption
Let's fly away
My pain is gone, the deed is done, goodbye to guilt and blame
Stronger than yesterday and I will never be the same
Never be the same

That life is through, and I'd die for you
I can't deny, the life that surrounds me now
A different shade of blue, lights up anew
Let's fly away

On the wings of redemption
We'll fly away
And we will find a new dimension
And touch the stars

On the wings of redemption
We will find a new dimension
And touch the stars

On the wings of redemption
We'll fly away
And we will find a new dimension
And touch the stars
