

DaNcing in a RoOm

EZI

I'm alive, and the rush
Fills my body on feelings
'Cause I know what it costs
And I know I don't need it

My eyes are closing
And yours are open
I know you notice, notice me
I might be broken but it's not showing
It's how I'm copin', copin'

So I just dance in the middle of the room by myself
I'm alright, I'm alright, doing well
Dance to the rhythm in a room by myself
I'm alright, doing fine, can't you tell
I don't
Need you, need you, need you, need you
Need you, need you, need you, need you
I don't
Need you, need you, need you, need you
I'm alright, doing fine, can't you tell

When you walk through the door
I pretend not to see it
Put my heart on the floor
But I keep it a secret

My eyes are closing
And yours are open
I know you notice, notice me
I might be broken but it's not showing
It's how I'm copin', copin'

So I just dance in the middle of the room by myself
I'm alright, I'm alright, doing well
Dance to the rhythm in a room by myself
I'm alright, doing fine, can't you tell
I don't
Need you, need you, need you, need you
Need you, need you, need you, need you
I don't
Need you, need you, need you, need you
I'm alright, doing fine, can't you tell

You held me down and now I'm so low
(I'm so low, now I'm so low)
On my own I learned to let it go
(I learned to let go, I learned to let go)

So I just dance in the middle of the room by myself
I'm alright, I'm alright, doing well
Dance to the rhythm in a room by myself
I'm alright, doing fine, can't you tell
I don't
Need you, need you, need you, need you
Need you, need you, need you, need you
I don't

Need you, need you, need you, need you
I'm alright, doing fine, can't you tell
