

One Day I Will Sin No More

Ezra Furman

One day I will sin no more
One day I will sin no more
But I'll keep this thought in the back of my mind
Lord's up ahead and the Devil's behind
And I will sin no more

One day heaven and earth will be like one
One day heaven and earth will be like one
But until that day on the day that I die
And I raise my hand up to the sky
And I will sin no more

One day first shall be last and last be first
One day first shall be last and last be first
Till the day it all comes crashing in
I ask forgiveness for my sins
And I will sin no more

One day I will sin no more
One day
But I keep this thought in the back of my mind
Lord's up ahead and the devil's behind
And I will sin no more
