

Teenage Wasteland

Ezra Furman

I can't tell what I am gonna do next
'Cause I always do whatever I feel, oh
I can't tell what I am gonna do next
Got no future plans and I'm feeling so real

And I know that I should probably be worried
But I can't find a reason to worry at all
I know I probably should worry
But I just don't care one little bit
I don't give a shit
I'm gonna self-destruct
I don't see a problem with it

And I know I'm gonna let it happen
'Cause what happens happens, that's how it goes, oh
I can't tell what I am gonna do next
And I'm never really under control

And I know that you all probably care about me
But I don't think you own me, it's not your concern
I know I probably owe you something
But I don't feel bad
I gave you all I had
I'm gonna self-destruct
I don't see a problem with it

I can't tell what I am gonna do next
'Cause I always do whatever I please, oh
I can't tell what I am gonna do next
Probably it's nothing, what a tease
