

I Keep Waiting

F. R. David

You did it again
You're still the same
I should have been gone
Before the pain
Everytime I tried
I just let it go
Feel like waisting my time
Waisting my time
I'm feeling abused
It's so hard to say
And going along
Is just a sin
Should've kissed you good-bye
Long time ago?
But you play with my mind
Ooooh, you play with my mind

I keep waiting
I keep turning
I keep trying through
But I can't make it up to you
You get me so confused
Baby, I keep waiting
I keep turning
I keep trying through
But I can't make it up to you
To you

One of these days
I'll walk away
Nothing in the world
Could make me stay
But I'm here for now
Burned in my soul
Girl, you play with my mind
Ooooh, you play with my mind

I keep waiting
I keep turning
I keep trying through
But I can't make it up to you
You get me so confused
Baby, I keep waiting
I keep turning
I keep trying through
But I can't make it up to you
To you

I ask myself
When I look at you
Is it the same girl that I once knew
And the days go by
As I hide my tears
Somewhere, somehow, you're part of me

I keep waiting
I keep turning

I keep trying through
But I can't make it up to you
You get me so confused
Baby, I keep waiting
I keep turning
I keep trying through
But I can't make it up to you
To you.
