

Porcelain Eyes

F. R. David

Porcelain eyes, broken heart
You've been crying too long
Life is hard and life is fun
So forget, it will bring you down
Ah

If you wanna stay by my side
Let it slip away, with the tide
I will soothe all the pain
Take you out of the rain

Heart ship lost in milky way
Finds no place to lean on
Take my hand and follow me
No i won't ever let you down
Ah

If you wanna stay by my side
Let it slip away, with the tide
I will soothe all the pain
Take you out of the rain

Porcelain eyes, broken heart
You will never ever get to cry again
