Oh please, stop it now, which guy is it this time?
You were never interested before but now you go to church
Your blog is all about praising the Lord all day

Your new boyfriend is a church oppa, right?
I really really really can't understand
You were an atheist but you have started this again

You fox-like girl, you fox-like girl
You're a fox who completely changes whenever you meet a guy
You fox-like girl, you start a new love, how many months is this one going to last?

It won't last another month, will it even last a week?
You fox-
like girl, you start a new love again, you really can't be stopped

What's wrong? You don't call me for over a month
But you ask if I'm busy these days, asking to see me
I don't feel good about this (maybe, maybe)

You say you broke up with that boyfriend because he was cheating So is that why you called me? You always do this, don't you even have a conscience?

You fox-like girl, you fox-like girl
You're a fox who completely changes whenever you meet a guy
You fox-like girl, your love has ended again thought you said this on e was for real

I won't let you off easily anymore, I don't wanna see you anymore
You fox-like girl, your love has ended again, have a nice life

But after seeing you cry, my heart hurts because we are friends after all
Just forget about that guy who is making you cry and start anew
Love may seem like it'll last forever but it's like magic that just c an't last
Did you find a new guy already?
Oh my fox-like friend

You fox-like girl, you fox-like girl
You're a fox who completely changes whenever you meet a guy
You fox-like girl, you start a new love, how many months is this one going to last?

It won't last another month, will it even last a week?
You fox-
like girl, you start a new love again, you really can't be stopped

Oh no, you got dumped again (really?)
It's okay (yeah right) fox-like girl

Oh no, you got a new one again? (Amazing)
You're so quick, you fox-like girl
