

Thick as a Brick

Face to Face

Hooray for annihilation
Three cheers for the underdogs we are
Thank you for the inspiration
You think you did it for yourself
But you don't know who you are

Do you think I hate you?
It is simple as that?
I work my fingers to the bone
And tied my hands behind my back
How can I make you understand
How can I make you understand
How can I make you understand
Whoa! whoa-a-oh
How can I make you understand

Kudos for your new position
Good luck with the world and now come home
I sit with my ears a-wishing
You made your mind up
That you know all about there is to know that

Do you think I hate you?
It is simple as that
I work my fingers to the bone
And tied my hands be behind my back
How can I make you understand
How can I make you understand
How can I make you understand
Whoa! whoa-a-oh
How can I make you understand

Do you think I hate you?
Well it's a matter of fact
I work my fingers to the bone
And tied my hands be behind my back
How can I make you understand
How can I make you understand
How can I make you understand
Whoa! whoa-a-oh
How can I make you understand
How can I make you understand
How can I make you understand
How can I make you
