

Amongst the dead

Face Yourself

I wandered all alone in the shadows
Through the silent graves
Where stood the tombstones
Listening to the whispers of death

Dancing with ghosts

In this other world
My profoundly sad heart
Found a new friend in death

Spiraling beneath the life that I have built
Finding comfort and embrace
Letting go of my mistakes
I descend into this unknown dimension

In the land of the forgotten
All my questions answered
Remaining memories of pain torturing me
My soul craves to meet yours again
In the hope of getting my revenge

I emerged from the shadows
Returning to this place
I came back from the dead
To claim a life not my own

I'll wear your face
And own your bones
Amongst the dead
I'll find my way home

Dancing with ghosts

Come with me
Give into my embrace
Our lifeless bodies
Were meant to be defaced

This ethereal plane
A gift from me to you
Alors que nous devenons
Le nouveau dieu

The nooses swing
As we ascend the throne
The divine search for recourse
As their essences each turn to stone
