

In the deep blue the dance never ends
A dance born from blood's sent

The dancer's fast sleek and alert
The specimen invites you
To the luring azure depths

The silent hunter moves with quiet grace
He charts his course in fluid sways

His body moving along the waves
In a tight embrace
In his eyes I see the chase
(I see the lie)
With my predator's lies I dive
Searching for purpose in this life

In a primal urge
He tares the flesh
To gorge and purge
His instincts awaken as the blood flows
And bleeds his prey as the waves foam
Polyphagic ravenous rage fuels his eternal rampage
In this combine of flesh and blood

In a deadly pirouette I found myself prey
My partner is a menace
He opens his mouth showing me the blades
In a deadly pirouette I found myself prey
This monster shows he's not afraid
As he starts biting my flesh

Aquatic vengeance
A blade of masqueraded hatred
Striking at my body
Mercilessly bleeding

In a primal urge
He tares the flesh
To gorge and purge
His instincts awaken as the blood flows
And bleeds his prey as the waves foam
Polyphagic ravenous rage fuels his eternal rampage
In this combine of flesh and blood
My consciousness slips away

Ruthless in his domain
No light shines through these waves
In his majesty he shows his reign

Fierce jaws snap in a deadly ballet
