Face Yourself

Everything coming out of your mouth
Is fucking shit
Hiding behind your screen
Fucking coward, say it to my face, you bitch

All you do is barking like a dog
Let me tell you something
You don't wish to see the anger in me

All I see is red
Before me
Washing over like a see
So sick of their shit
Time to put them back in their fucking place

I am done, now's time to free the crimson rage
If it's a war they want, I will give it to them
All I need is to express this great fury
Unleashed by extreme violence
Animated by animosity

You have no idea what you have triggered, motherfucker
Nothing can stop this rage
Instinctive vengeance awakes
Prepare for the pain
Violence remains the only way
It makes me smile to think of your suffering
You pushed me to my breaking point
I will beat you to death
Just to feel something
I'll watch the blood flow
While you're begging me to stop

Time to paint
Everything in red

Ton sang de sa tâche
Laissera une empreinte durable
Rappelant ma rage

Can't contain this furious anger
I'll lash out at everyone
And everything
I will be merciless
No remorse for your suffering

I have pictured you dying in my head
For a thousand times
There will be no relief the bleeding is so satisfying
Can't look away from the sight
I would do anything just to satisfy my fucked up mind
You won't survive
I can't help but ignore your cries of help
There is no coming back

Blood is on my hands, undivine
I destroyed the parasite

Those who defy
Have no chance to survive

Bloodshed is now a way of life
