

Unhinged

Face Yourself

On the pyre
You tried to burn me
But through the fire
I was born again

Burn everything you thought
You loved and needed
And I'll burn this motherfucker straight
To the fucking ground

A burning caress
Is the last you'll feel
Before all your sins
Are finally healed

As you stand to wait and gaze
Into the sky and see
My retribution is so stunning
In its urgency

I'll make you dance
Like the ocean's waves
As your body laid to rest
In the flames

Reduced to dust
Blown in the wind
By fire be purged
For your every sin bitch, fuck
La guerre du feu est déclarée

I flew too close to the sun
And burned my wings
Exhilaration sears everything
My scorched hubris
Excessive pride
Comes at a fiery price

On the pyre you burnt me to death
But in the flames
I was born again
Dance in the flames
In a burning embrace
I cannot be contained
Burn it, motherfucker, burn
In a scorching embrace
I am unhinged

Everything you thought I'd be
Is a shadow of who I used to be
A failed reflection
Of a broken dream
A travesty unhinged
From this society
A travesty unhinged
Unhinged
