

(I Know) I'm Losing You

Faces

(I know) I'm losing you

Your love is fading,
I can feel your love fading,
Woman it's fading away from me

Cause your personal touch has grown cold
As if someone else controls your very soul
I fooled myself long as I can
I can feel the presence of another man

It's there when you speak my name
It's just not the same
Oh honey I'm losing you

Can feel it in the air
It's there everywhere
Oh I'm losing you

Can feel it in my bones
Any day you'll be up and gone
Oh I'm losing you

It's all over your face,

Someone's taken my place,
could it be, that I'm losing you

When I look into your eyes a reflection of a face I see
Oh lord, I'm losing you

I'm hurt, downhearted and worried girl
Cause that face doesn't belong to me

Your love is fading, can feel it fading
oh away from me
Can feel it in the air, it's there everywhere
Ooh I'm losing you
I don't want to lose you, but I know I'm gonna groove ya
Ooh I'm losing you

Your love is fading, can feel it fading
Oh lord, I'm losing you.
