

45 Days

Fact

Riding on the wind
As the time passes by
I forgot about you
I found myself alone

I screamed your name
You're so far away from me
To get closer to truth
I remember the time I was with you

You disappeared in the forest
I lost you in my sights. I was looking lonely at the ground
Leaves are falling today. Seeds are growing tomorrow

I screamed your name
You're so far away from me
To get closer to truth
I remember the time I was with you

I screamed your name
