

Farewell

Fact

Please don't deny everything, even just a bit.
Even though I have something to say to you,
you should not hear me and I want you not to hear me.
It's too boring to wait for tomorrow in the dark room.
you don't have to change at all.
robbing my freedom, you only mix up a worry and relief.

Myself is just same as the one peace you've lost.
the blank is never completed.
I recommend you to buy a new set of puzzle.
My thought is only one of many.

I'm going to pour it into this wine bottle and smash it up.
I'll show you my face reflected in the fragment.
how can you see my face?

It's too boring to wait for tomorrow in the dark room.
you don't have to change at all.
robbing my freedom, you only mix up a worry and relief.

It's too boring to wait for tomorrow in the dark room.
you don't have to change at all.
robbing my freedom, you only mix up a worry and relief
