

give up

Fact

Will time heal?
Will time heal me?
Will time heal?
You're wasting all the time you've been given

Let me hear
Let me hear the answer
Let me hear
I'm searching with nothing to depend on

My one and only heart is melting
Falling to the ground and I just give up
I have set my hands upon the door but I am beaten by the pressure

(Where light will never reach)
(My finger tips are frozen)

Should I burn the ground at my feet with the match in front of me?
(When will it) disappear?

Where light will never reach
My finger tips are frozen
Should I burn the ground at my feet with the match in front of me ?
(When will it)

When I call you tomorrow
I'm hoping that you don't pick up the phone
Cause I'm sending you a letter
And I hope this will change the way things are
