

Hate Induces Hate

Fact

Foolish wars are caused by desire
Their stupid actions
learn nothing from history
It still continues
If they noticed their senseless wars,
They should be able to stop even now
Hate induces hate
Wars inducing wars
Hate induces hate
Wars inducing wars
Can't return to the past,
cause the power chooses money
It's just a means for surviving,
surviving killing someone?
surviving killing someone?
Foolish wars are

It's just a means for surviving,
surviving killing someone?
We all know what we should do
surviving killing someone?
We all know what we should do
surviving killing someone?
We all know what we should do
surviving killing someone?
We all know what we should do

The choice you make will haunts us from now on The price we pay will last until we're gone until we're gone

Can't return to the past,
cause the power chooses money
It's just a means for surviving,
surviving killing someone?
surviving killing someone?
