

Standing There

Fact

Look at my eyes.
What can you see?
Even though you've so near to me.
I feel you've too far.
Even though you've so near to me.
I feel you've too far.

Surely I'm in front of you.
But I've even forgot to believe you.
I've even forgot to love you.

Look at my eyes.
Nothing might be projected there.
Look at my eyes.
Nothing might be projected there.

I feel like I have known it for quite sometime.
I have pretended to be ignorant of it.

Before I know it.
I feel anxiety.
Before I know it.
It becomes distorted a second is disappearing.

Look at my eyes.
Nothing might be projected there.
Look at my eyes.
So I'm weak But I keep standing there.
Look at my eyes.
Nothing might be projected there.
Look at my eyes.
Until the truth is projected there.
