

Ballad of the Weak

Faderhead

No this is not my heart
I'm just holding it for my friend
No this is not my pain
I'm just crying for someone else
No this is not my life
I just live it for those around
And these are not my eyes
Cause I'm nowhere to be found

I will let you break my heart
I won't let you fall
I will let you break my heart
But I won't let you fall down

No this is not my love
I'm just showing it for my friend
No this is not my hate
I'm just screaming for someone else
No this is not my war
I'm just fighting for those around
And these are not my dreams
Cause I'm awake and falling down
