

The sky is grey
The world still spins
But clouds won't go away
Like yesterday
It's all the same
Can't seem to win this race
The faces pale
And everyone I see
Is acting strange
To me
But you know for you I will

Be brave
Unphased
Watch your step
Make sure you're safe
Try to set the sky ablaze / Set the universe ablaze
And see your eyes shining

The night has come
The world still spins
But I can't spin along
The map seems wrong
I lost my way
Can't find the road back home
The sun is gone
No stars in sight
And everyone's alone
Tonight
You know that for you I will
