

Electrosluts Extraordinaire

Faderhead

I can't remember when I broke mine
Another dream for a lost generation
Another legion on the sidelines
The time has come, surpass the stagnation
I can't remember any plotlines
Another channel on a throwaway station
Another way to spend your lifetime
The time has come, stop the mutation

The time has come, stop the mutation

The time has come, stop the mutation

You dance
They stare
They bitch
And glare
A head that's filled with air
Electrosluts Extraordinaire

Electrosluts Extraordinaire

I can't remember bigger shitpiles
Another dream for a lost generation
Another reason just to get high
The time has come, surpass the stagnation
I can't remember choosing standby
Another symptom of useless fixation
Another reason for the flatline
The time has come, stop the mutation

The time has come, stop the mutation

The time has come, stop the mutation

You dance
They stare
They bitch
And glare
A head that's filled with air
