Faderhead

My life is silence
Cause I have nothing left to say
The world is passing by
Speeding like an endless highway
My life is silence
I locked the door
And broke the key
Why can't I just walk away?

I hate the night
I hate the day
But soon I'll be free, yeah

My life is silence
Cause you're not listening anyway
Invalidate what I believe
Until there's nothing left to say
My life is silence
Cause I have nothing left
I locked the door and turned around
Why can't I just walk away
