

She's Like Rain and Hate

Faderhead

She's like glass and breaks so easily
She contemplates and complicates
She's like glass and hard to hold for me
She's like rain and hate

She's like rain and hate
Can't tell left from right
She's like rain and hate
Can't tell right from wrong
She's like rain and hate

She's like skin and scars so easily
She's so fragile, paperweight
She's like skin and hard to touch for me
She's like rain and hate

She's like air and flees so easily
She does not linger in one place
She's like air and disappears from me
She's like rain and hate
