

Bring Back the Sound

Failure

Can they bring back the sound?
The sound kept you breathing
Can something be found
To make this all go away
All go away

Malcontent, boundless and raw
Loss of self, misunderstood
Pride is lost, innocence gone
A new crusade with endless applause

Can they bring back the sound
The sound kept you breathing
Can something be found
To make this all go away

Fallen sad, scattered unseen
Lost your way in a fallacy scheme
Called to give, so you gave it all up
Shed the past, so you could be loved

Will you bring back the sound?
The sound kept me breathing
Can something be found?
To make this all go away

Malcontent, boundless and raw
Loss of self, misunderstood
Called to give, so you gave it all up
Shed the past so you could belong

Can they bring back the sound
The sound kept you breathing
Can something be found
To make this all go away
