

Shrine

Failure

All of my unmatched disciples floating minions laying mines said he didn't wanna find her sharing this spot in the shrine

Said the past was worth repeating (bring your blankets for the coin/choir) said he'd leave with just a greeting sharing this spot in the (slime)

Please don't let me see inside please don't let me look inside

Cut a to release her spread himself among the stars said he wanted to believe it had a temple anyway

Please don't let me look inside
please don't let me see inside
please don't let me look inside
please don't let me look inside
