

A New Dawn

Fairyland

There was a time
When we were as one
Nothing could come to an end

Our childhood was blind
Innocence thrived
Far from all sins and all pain

But now look here comes war
Stay united, waiting for more

All things eternal
Will always remain
We'll fight, we'll win
And we'll grow again

Glory is coming
This is a new dawn
Our tribe is now winning
Heading to shore

But now look here comes war
We'll stay united, waiting for more

In the wind of
Flying the seventh of heaven
On their wings of gold
They carry the light of the gods shine bright

Now that we're here
In the land of our dreams
Nothing will ever go wrong
Our future is bright
Angels are on our side
We will always stand strong

But now look here comes war
We'll stay united, waiting for more

In the wind of
Flying the seventh of heaven
On their wings of gold
They carry the light of the gods shine bright

In the wind of
Flying the seventh of heaven
On their wings of gold
They carry the light of the gods shine bright

In the wind of
Flying the seventh of heaven
On their wings of gold
They carry the light of the gods shine bright

In the wind of
Flying the seventh of heaven
On their wings of gold

They carry the light of the gods shine bright
