

Unity

Fairyland

Forget all sorrows and pain
With the souls alike
You'll be bright and mighty
Step out hide your crimes
Many years you cried alone
Trying to find home
Soon you'll be united
Someone at your side

You've been scared for too long
Digging in the past
Hide your grudge and all spite
Wear it like a crown
Didn't even know that you're strong
You tried to turn your heart into stone
Find your tribe and your role
Follow your light

Old times are gone
Forget all that you've made
Forget your mistakes
All that you want
Come to you and fall into place
Now your time has come
Join us in our journey

Mother to children is love
Contains and hides the tears she cries
But I'm still here to heal your pain
When you need me just say my name

Listen to me my son
Your journey's not over yet
Keep the faith and carry on
I'll be on your side again

Spirits of our fathers
Are still giving us strength
Wisdom of our mothers
Showing us the way
This eternal fountain
Sure will bless our land
Strong we'll be united
Forever prevail

To the land of our dreams
To the land of might
In the age of fighting
All unite

To the land of our dreams
To the land of might
All unite

To the land of our dreams
To the land of might

In the age of fighting
All unite
