

Shattered in Aspect

Faith and the Muse

It's time to let go Time to spend some time alone
Farbeit to explain what has been done and what is illusion

We have outlived ourselves By many a ruined year
The future ripped from a tattered page

Like the violence in dream-dead eyes The reflection of a thousand tangled views- Cause and Effect
Like the diamond that cuts the light The radiation from a single mind

We could outlive ourselves Acting out a tedious wish long fulfilled
Over and over and over again

It's time to let go Time to spend some time alone
Reconsider what could be done Unbind the imagination

We're ready for a new age of innocence
