

We Just Clicked (Interlude)

Faith Evans

So I think it was the weekend. Finally he said "Ma, I want you to meet Faith". He was not calling her Faith. He said "This is Faye"

I said "OK, so you are the one?" And she came and we met and I think we just clicked because I saw her whole demeanour, she was Faith you know and in a way I think I felt relieved because I knew somebody was going to take care of him because I knew he could not take care of himself. I was very very relieved that his girl was going to take care of him
