

Sun to Me

Faithless

So in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
That we'll again
Fit together perfectly

So in in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
That we'll again
Fit together perfectly

You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me

I stumbled into you
Accidentally
And yet
Feels as though you were
Sent to me...
That we were meant to be
Together and grow with
Each other
Through the centuries

If my body was your mirror
You'd be able to see
Exactly
What it is about you
That I'm addicted to
Helplessly you distract me
Like a mountain view of Rivers crashing into the sea
Strangely
You all seem familiar to me
Would so, love tie us
Together through eternity
So in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
We will again
Fit together perfectly

You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me

So in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
We will again
Fit together perfectly

You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me

If my body was your mirror
You'd be able to see

Exactly
What it is about you
That makes me shiver
You give me a soul fever
And I achieve
A new level of grace

So in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
We will again
Fit together perfectly
Perfectly
Perfectly
Perfectly
Perfectly
Perfectly

You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me

We do it so fervently
We do it so fervently
With your urgency
We do it so fervently

You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me

You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
