Faithless

Feeling good
Feels like

Feels like

Feels like being free
Feels like being thirteen
Water fights and summer on the estate
Back when the whole universe was just me and my mates

Hoping for a new adventure every time our phones would vibrate
Feels like summertime sex, feels like being eighteen
And getting that "My parents ain't home" text
And you get home late with a smile on your face

Feels like freedom
Feels like friendship being boo'd up
Feels like the world hasn't forgotten the meaning of true love
Calling a stranger bruv
