

Reinventing the Wheel to Run Myself Over

Fall Out Boy

I could walk this fine line between elation and success
We all know which way I'm going to strike the stake between my chest

So, you have to prove yourself, you'll have to prove it to me

So, now you're waiting up for him
You're wasting time yeah, every time

Whoa, I can't do it by myself
Whoa, I can't do it by myself
Whoa, I can't do it by myself
Whoa, I can't do it by myself
Whoa, I can't do it by myself

I can't wake up to these reminders of who I am
A failure at everything, eighteen going on extinct
I know my place, it's nowhere you should roam

So, now you're waiting up for him
You're still wasting time, yeah, every time, yeah

Whoa, I can't do it by myself
Whoa, I can't do it by myself
Whoa, I can't do it by myself
Whoa, I can't do it by myself

Whoa, I can't do it by myself
Whoa, I can't do it by myself
Whoa, I can't do it by myself
Whoa, I can't do it by myself
