

Caught Like a Fly

Falling in Reverse

Attention, Attention everyone!
I got a couple of things
I would like to get off of my chest
HAHA
FRIENDS!
Who the fuck needs them?
You know who you are!
Eh hmm

Caught like a fly
In a web of your lies
It's truth be told now
Or meet your demise!

So how did it feel?
When you held the knife
That you stuck right in my back
A thousand times!

Your grandfather would probably roll in his grave
If he knew of that person you had became!
I will not just lay down and take this!
Not again, not again

You have left my heart, black and blue
Just like your father did to you!

How does it feel, knowing your buried alive
See through bloodshot eyes
your left empty inside
There I was, strung out and drug through the mud
I must agree, you're just like me

And when you die
I won't be at your wake
No eulogy from me
Just a smile on my face
And while God might be busy
With judging your soul
I will have slept with the girl
That you loved most!

You have left my heart, black and blue
Just like your father did to you!

How does it feel, knowing your barely alive
See through bloodshot eyes
There I was, strung out and drug through the mud
I must agree, you're just like me

Whooaaa

Now how does it feel knowing your barely alive
See through bloodshot eyes

There I was, strung out and drug through the mud
I must agree, you're just like me

I'm no fucking saint
But at least I'll fucking sing about it
Oh, the audacity!
