

Guillotine IV (The Final Chapter)

Falling in Reverse

My heart is on fire again,
From the depths of hell, it swallows me in
The demons are all in my head,
Pulling me in, pulling me in

Here I go,
Sinking below, sinking below
All I know
Is fading away, fading away from me now

This can't be happening
I've watched my whole world fall apart

So long, farewell, to the best of me
It's so far away
'Cause I'm my own worst enemy
And it's so hard to say
There's no way out
And you are way too late
Say goodbye to the rest of me...

Bound;
By the demons, they doubt me
My whole world, around me, is drowning
And the demons I hate
Are the monsters I always create

My heart is on fire again,
From the depths of hell, it swallows me in
The demons are all in my head,
Pulling me in, pulling me in

This can't be happening
I've watched my whole world fall apart

So long, farewell, to the best of me
It's so far away
'Cause I'm my own worst enemy
And it's so hard to say
There's no way out
And you are way too late
Say goodbye to the rest of me...

So long, farewell, to the best of me
It's so far away
'Cause I'm my own worst enemy
And it's so hard to say
There's no way out
And you are way too late
Say goodbye to the rest of me...

So long, farewell, to the best of me
It's so far away
'Cause I'm my own worst enemy
And it's so hard to say
There's no way out
And you are way too late

Say goodbye to the rest of me...
