

I'm Not A Hero

Falling in Reverse

Oh

I've come so close to death, close to the afterlife
Right down to my last breath, smelled right formaldehyde
I must give up this bottle, throw away these pills
I must ease off this throttle, someone might get killed

Self-destructing symptom of me

Oh my God, I am not a hero, I just wanna be myself
So if that makes me amazing, that's something I can't help

I stare into the mirror, and all I can see
Is a reflection of what I want to be
My heart is on my sleeve, the sacrifice I make
To start the healing process before it's too late

Self-destructing symptom of me

Oh my God, I am not a hero, I just wanna be myself
So if that makes me amazing, that's something I can't help
I do not have the answers, but I'd like to think
That I saved some people with the lyrics that I sing

Oh, I'm burning everything I know
I am the captain of my soul
And I will always walk alone
No matter how far down I go

Oh my God, I am not a hero, I just wanna be myself
So if that makes me amazing, that's something I can't help
I do not have the answers, but I'd like to think
That I saved some people with the lyrics that I sing

Oh, I'm burning everything I know
I am the captain of my soul
And I will always walk alone
No matter how far down I
