

Right Now

Falling in Reverse

Hello earthlings (Greetings!) your favorite alien's back
I crashed my spaceship, but here's my plan of attack
Sit back, relax while I talk a bunch of crap on this track
I'm sick of hatred, self righteous humans pretend
That momma's basement is not the place that they live
They stay up all night long, complaining on vlogs
Ah ah oh oh

I'm gonna tell you how
I could give a fuck what you're about
You think you're cooler than me
But you're not what you seem
You're writing up my popularity
All I'm saying is: oh, don't come around here
And act like you're my friend
You keep on reeling me in and selling me out
So I could give a fuck what you're about

I hate the media and how they spin every word
I killed a puppy, but I... cuddled him first?
And if you think that's bad you should that there's worse
I'm not a bad guy it's just my reputation is fucked
But I'll embrace it, I got no other choice and it sucks
If you dont think thats wrong, you're as dumb as this song

I'm gonna tell you how
I could give a fuck what you're about
You think you're cooler than me
But you're not what you seem
You're writing up my popularity
All I'm saying is: oh, dont come around here
And act like you're my friend
You keep on reeling me in and selling me out
So I could give a fuck what you're about

Mother, have your mercy 'cause the worse is yet to come
Sorry that I whining in the middle of this song
But we are tragically hard to please
Mother have your mercy 'cause the worse is yet to come
Ahh, does Ronnie Radke have to smack a bitch?
Too soon?

I'm gonna tell you how
I could give a fuck what you're about
You think you're cooler than me
But you're not what you seem
You're writing up my popularity
All I'm saying is: oh, don't come around here
And act like you're my friend
You keep on reeling me in and selling me out
So I could give a fuck what you're about

Tragically

Get off of the internet and make some fucking friends
