

Trigger Warning

Falling in Reverse

We're the land of the free, we're the home of the brave
Freedom of speech, that's what they say

One, we're taking a stand
Two, we're making demands
Three, we're protecting the children
Four, we got blood on our hands

Damn, this is irrelevant
But you keep backing that shit for the hell of it
And you keep acting like you don't got skeletons
Up in your closet that you don't want dwelling in
Damn, we're pushing the narrative
Aren't you proud to be an American?
Damn, there's nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
Bombs away, kiss it goodbye

Stand down or fall like the rest of them
We're one nation under oblivion
I don't want drama
But I'm gonna say what I wanna
There's nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
Bombs away, kiss it goodbye
Kiss it goodbye

You pledge your allegiance
Into the unknown
Trust in your leaders
Bow to the throne

One, resistance is futile
Two, comply if you can
Three, trust in your government
Four, we got blood on our hands

Damn, this is irrelevant
But you keep backing that shit for the hell of it
And you keep acting like you don't got skeletons
Up in your closet that you don't want dwelling in
Damn, we're pushing the narrative
Aren't you proud to be an American?
Damn, there's nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
Bombs away, kiss it goodbye

Stand down or fall like the rest of them
We're one nation under oblivion
I don't want drama
But I'm gonna say what I wanna
There's nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
Bombs away, kiss it goodbye

Stand down or fall like the rest of them
We're one nation under oblivion
I don't want drama
But I'm gonna say what I wanna
There's nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
Bombs away, kiss it goodbye

Kiss it goodbye
