

Bittersweet

Falling Up

Release the gate of beautiful, I am staying down to hide in rooms away

These tears they build me up a house, then they pour on down and wash the house away
And I am left to fight the waves he's around me constantly

I kissed these lonely tears I shed goodbye
Because I'm bittersweet, without you father there's no reason

CLOSE up my heart it makes me feel, like these rooms will close in locking all the doors
With these hands and broken stones,
I have built a legacy and now it's time to move on

I kissed these lonely tears I shed goodbye
Because I'm bittersweet, without you father there's no reason (2x)

He's around me constantly
So get off of my soul

I kissed these lonely tears I shed goodbye
Because I'm bittersweet, without you father there's no reason (2x)
