

Oceans

Falling Up

From a lonely spell I felt another life
It leapt before me some dangerous grace

Believe when I say that I want to try
Cause I've been used up and hope has run out

See me alone - this is what they wanted
To see me alone

If your heart's an ocean, then I will drown
Beneath the waves, there will be love

I found a cavern right below my life
That time has passed through and folded inside

And now the future is a waving rise
A mysterious turn, that's telling me that - I saw the future
