Eros & Psyche

Fallstar

[Verse 1]
I have found bliss here
We'll never leave unless you drag us out dead
Steadfast
Bring the beat back, 'cause I am found

I, I have found bliss here
We'll never leave unless you drag us out dead
Steadfast
Bring the beat back, yeah, 'cause I am found

And I ain't slippin' out the back door
(Oh yeah) And I ain't playin' when I say I'm gonna stay
I run scenarios that keep me up at night
(Oh yeah) I make decisions that I take into my grave

[Chorus]
You are the light to my eyes, color of all my longings (all my longings)
Like an alter of fire
As Eros and Psyche live, we are alive together
We escaped from the void, sing with our voices
Following footsteps that lead me back to you
Like a light in the sky
As Eros and Psyche live, we are alive together

[Verse 2]
Bam, we're gonna finish what we started, love
Even if it's only us against the world
It's past the point of being two of us
I'm one with all that can complete me

[Bridge]
I would run one thousand miles to see you
Oh to be near you, to hold you close
I would run one thousand miles to see you

Oh to be near you, to hold you close
I would run one thousand miles to see you
Oh to be near you, to hold you close

[Chorus]
You are the light to my eyes, color of all my longings (all my longings)
Like an alter of fire
As Eros and Psyche live, we are alive together
We escaped from the void, sing with our voices
Following footsteps that lead me back to you
Like a light in the sky
As Eros and Psyche live, we are alive together

(Alive together)
(Alive together)

[Bridge]
I have found bliss here
We'll never leave unless you drag us out dead
Steadfast
Bring the beat back, 'cause I am found

I have found bliss here
We'll never leave unless you drag us out dead
Steadfast
Bring the beat back, 'cause I am found

[Chorus]
You are the light to my eyes, color of all my longings (all my longings)
Like an alter of fire
As Eros and Psyche live, we are alive together
We escaped from the void, sing with our voices
Following footsteps that lead me back to you
Like a light in the sky
As Eros and Psyche live, we are alive together
