Red Letters

Fallstar

Blind my eyes, help me see
Bind my hands, set me free

Sovereign, Mercy, Hold on to me

Consistencies of broken knees make my walk so much better
Do what you will with my physics, you can't break my means
Do not charge them

Confined, I shall not be moved, even at my last,
Even after solitude reveals her laugh

And I'll plead your name...
I'll hold close to these red letters

Ravage my bones
Swallow your own

Did it take...a crown upon His head,
To make you understand, eternity's at hand.

Life is screaming, take your heart from these hands.

It is finished

Your eyes don't lie
Your veil has died
