

What Roberta Sparrow Said

Fallstar

[Verse 1]

Yeah we're back again
The crowd stands up we shoot to win
Let the immigrants in I'm a culturist
Yeah we share the same blood and I'm all for it
All flesh is kin
Shake a rattle can and tag again
Like pack of hyenas we cacklin'
Hunting for the kill, that's bound to fall

Full of ideas and full of doubts
Who says you gotta have it all figured out
So we're bustin' words
Working hard, waiting for the empire to fall
Try and swing at me when I'm on this mountain top
My joy is dancing on this love
We're singing sweet redemption songs

[Chorus]

I woke up to find the whole world was asleep
The whole world fast asleep
Fall into a sleep, but we snap back
Wake up, wake up, where you at?

[Verse 2]

Who says you're born with it?
Who says you can't resist?
All men are born with conscience
Aren't we made in the image of goodness
Spitting image of the truth

I was born to fight, face and rule
I was born to push against sorcerers
I was born to mobilize the voice of youth

Shut down, down the armories
Shut down down Guantanamo Bay
I'm pissed, pissed, we're force to pay for drones to airstrike families
Shut down, down the armories
Shut down, down Guantanamo Bay
I'm pissed, pissed, we're force to pay for drones to airstrike families

[Breathing]

[Chorus]

I woke up to find the world was asleep
The whole world fast asleep
(Wake up, wake up)

I woke up to find the world was asleep
The whole world fast asleep
(Wake up, wake up)

Wake up!
Wake up!

I woke up to find the world was asleep
The whole world fast asleep
(Wake up, wake up)
Wake up
Wake up

I woke up to find the world was asleep
The whole world fast asleep
(Wake up, wake up)
Wake up
Wake up
