

The Void Alone

Fallujah

Compulsion and numbness become
The only way that I can survive
This moment is the closest thing
I'll ever have to paradise

Color reflects as the night projects
A glitch in the frame for this life of excess
Tell me secrets of life and death
For I foresee my grave

Forget the past
Or be swarmed with regret
A pulse in the veins
As I wait for the end

Fighting fear I wait in agony
Seeping into the soil
Rust upon the coil
I am swarmed with self-contempt

Never again, no never again

[Vocals: Tori]

I don't want to face
The Void Alone
The warmth in me
Swallowed whole

The sequence of the frames
A young child alone
Speak to me
So gracefully

You saw me through the lights
And we had only time

[Vocals: Alex]

Paradise awaits as I unfold
Bleeding days into the soil

Forgetting the child you always were Becoming the man takes more than words
Hate the way my thoughts they sway
Home is but a place, a cage in a frame
